AGAINST CUT-OUT

But in Favor of a Reduction of The Tobacco Acreage.—Resolutions Adopted.

The committee which was appointed by the tobacco growers last Saturday at the Court House and offered the resolutions heretofore reported. The meeting was presided over by T. Scott Mayes, and W. D. Claybrooke was made Secretary. A number of farmers attended the meeting and made speeches all against a cut-out, but in favor of a reduction of the acreage. The farmers will meet Saturday to consider the resolutions which are as follows:

"Whereas, The high prices of tobacco that have prevailed for the two years last past have induced an overproduction of tobacco in Kentucky, and the cut out of the 1908 crop has encouraged the raising of tobacco in other States not heretofore engaged in such business, and by reason of such conditions the prices of tobacco now prevailing have been forced below the cost of production, to the great damage of the tobacco growers all over the State, and is endangering the position of Kentucky as the leading tobacco producing State of the Union, which it has maintained for over a hundred years; and

"Whereas, It is self evident that it is detrimental to the best interest of the tobacco growers of Kentucky, and to the tobacco market in general, that more tobacco be produced than is demanded for consumption, and that if overproduction is continued low prices must prevail as a natural consequence; and

"Whereas, These conditions are recognized all over Kentucky, and to overcome them, the Burley Tobacco Union has determined that no tobacco be raised during the year 1911.

"With great respect for the opinion of the persons composing the Burley Tobacco Union, but looking to the best interest of the State of Kentucky in general, and the tobacco growers in particular, the tobacco growers of Washington county are forced to differ with the Burley Tobacco Union in its said conclusion and determination to cut-out the crop in 1911, and maintain that such a course will be destructive to the best interest of the State and deprive thousands of good citizens of the State of the means of livelihood; therefore be it.

"Resolved, That the tobacco growers of Washington county are unalterably opposed to an attempt to cut-out the crop, which everyone must know cannot be done without 'night riding,' with the disastrous results which are brought about by such methods, and we favor a reasonable reduction of the crop on an equitable basis so no more tobacco be raised in Kentucky during the year 1911 than will supply the legitimate demands of the market; therefore be it.

"Resolved, That the following be, and the same is, adopted as the schedule for the maximum quantity of tobacco to be raised in Washington county during the year 1911, and that the following portions of the land be cultivated in tobacco:

"On farms owned by one or more persons: Four per cent of the first 100 acres; 3 per cent of the second 100 acres; 2 per cent of the third 100 acres; 1 per cent on the excess of 400 acres.

"Provided, That should the foregoing schedule reduce the quantity of land that may be grown in tobacco to less than two acres, then this schedule shall not apply, but the owner of such land may grow two acres on land owned by him, and not purchased with the intent to evade the provisions of this schedule.

"Be It Further Resolved, That a committee be appointed, whose duty it shall be to prepare articles of incorporation, to the end that a corporation be organized, composed of the citizens of Washington county, and that the foregoing resolution be put into practical execution for the government of the tobacco growers of Washington county for the year 1911.

"And It is Further Resolved, That we invite the other tobacco-growers counties in the State to co-operate with us in the plan outlined, or some other that may be best, for the practicable control of the tobacco crop each year, so that only so much tobacco be grown as will supply the legitimate demands of the market; and be it further.

"Resolved, That a committee be appointed to attend the meeting of the Burley Tobacco Union at Lexington, Ky., on January 25, 1911, that the position of Washington county may be understood, and for a conference with said State organization, that a plan may be adopted that will subvert the best interest of all tobacco growers of the State; and be it further.

"Resolved, That while we have adopted the foregoing schedule as an equitable basis upon which tobacco may be grown to supply no more than the legitimate demands the market may require, yet such schedule is tentative and is yet subject to be modified to conform to the interest of other portions of the State if the plan outlined by Washington county should be adopted by either of the State organization or both."

BIG SALES OF TOBACCO

During The Past Week Reported
By The Four Local Houses.
Prices Good.

The tobacco market during the past week has been strong and the sales better than at any time since the opening of the market. Large sales have been held at all the houses and the prices realized have been good, good tobacco especially selling at satisfactory prices. Every house has disposed of large quantities and at prices ranging from 4c to 9c per pound.

During the past week the Washington County House has sold 300,000 lbs. The Springfield House from 275,000 to 300,000. The Planters 175,000 and The Farmers over 200,000 pounds.

A MILLION ACRES OF LAND

In Breathitt, Knox, Letcher and a few Other Counties Purchased by Hollanders.

One of the greatest land deals ever put through in Kentucky was made at the Hotel Belmont, in New York City, January 7, 1911. The deal includes 1,100,000 acres of coal and timber land in Breathitt, Knox, Letcher and two other adjoining counties. A syndicate of Hollanders are the purchasers, and $50,000,000 was the price paid.

This means a great deal to this section of Kentucky. It will bring much capital and many industries and law abiding citizens into these counties, and it is to be hoped it will be the means of settling the feuds that exist here.

The mountain section of the State is destined to be the wealthiest and most populous section and the development of its resources will completely change social condition there. Feuds will cease, and assassinations will be unknown, and peace will reign as supremely there as in any other part of the State.—Harrodsburg Republican.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrodsburg, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything. I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C. for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to the great throat and lung cure. Its positive guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Haydon & Robertson's."

HANDSOME PRIZE OFFERED

The Candidates in The Piano Contest—

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

Birthdays of Mr. J. D. Keeling And Mr. Lewis A. Martin Celebrated.

On Wednesday, January 18, while Mr. J. D. Keeling had gone to call on one of his sick neighbors, a number of his friends who had been invited by his wife, Mrs. Keeling, to celebrate his fifty-ninth birthday. When Mr. Keeling returned to his home about eleven o'clock he found the house filled with guests, and the table laden with an enormous amount of everything good to eat. This was a very pleasant surprise to Mr. Keeling as his children, who had prepared the dinner, kept it all a profound secret to him. Mr. Keeling had prepared nothing of the dinner; it was his children, who had rehearsed him so, and there was plenty to eat, too, there being seven children, namely, Maudie Lucy Kays, Rebecca Ryan, Mary Colvin, Sarah Kays, Mrs. Elsie, Urah and Hughie Keeling. Maudie is the only one unmarried, and yet lives with his parents. Mr. Keeling had present seventeen grandchildren, also Mr. Keeling's aged father, Mr. Uriah Keeling, who enjoyed the day as much as his son. This old man is past eighty years of age and is most as active as any sixteen year old boy. His daughter Miss Florence Keeling, and little grandson, Raymond, were present. Those of his friends present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins, Mesdames Martha Snyder and Isabelle Crouch and son, R. L. Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sims and little grandson, Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Crouch, Mrs. Catherine Tatham and little granddaughter, Nellie Dodman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mathew and Miss Lettie Duncan, making fifty in all who ate dinner. In the morning the guests were entertained by some beautiful records on the graphophone, and after they had all eaten heartily the good dinner they had some old time singing, and Rev. Sims read a chapter, prayed and made a short talk, and then the happy crowd shook hands, wishing Mr. Keeling many more such happy days, and left for their respective homes. A GUEST.

On the 20th of January the children and grandchildren of Mr. Lewis A. (or Peter) Martin gathered at the home of Mr. B. L. Martin, just over the Boyle line, to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of their aged father, which has for years been their custom. It is almost needless to say the dinner, of which some thirty ate, was excellent and well served. After dinner was over we gathered in the best rooms for religious services. Rev. J. A. Sawyer, of Mackville, the family pastor, began to sing the familiar and appropriate hymn "How Firm A Foundation," when he read suitable passages from the best of books, and requested the "writer to lead in prayer. He then gave us a short talk on life. The preacher told us of his responsibilities, and how our influence for good or evil would live on and rather force until it lashed the farthest shore of time. Wesley's influence he said, was still going on, and as with him, so it would be with us. He said we would not be justified, nor condemned at the judgment, but rewarded. While he was the only living representative of his fathers family, and seemed like a lonely oak standing on some wave beat shore, working and watching for the sons of time, but looked forward with joy to the time when father, mother, brothers and sisters would be reunited in the Better Land. We had a good service, and a good time all went home feeling the day had been well spent.

Mr. Martin was born Jan. 20, 1850, on what is known as the Geo. Carpenter farm in West Boyle. When nine years old father moved to where Mr. Dick White now lives. Was converted in 1856 during a great revival held on Fells Run, when he joined the M. E. church. On the 23d of Jan. 1867 was married to Miss Margaret Bug, of Mercer county, but who was born in Meigs county, Va., July, 1834. To this union was born six children, namely, Miss Nancy F. Coyle, S. T. and B. L. Martin, and Lucy B. Elliott, who died in infancy. On July 1st, 1892, he lost his wife. There are seven teen grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. Mr. Martin has a good memory and very good health, and bids fair to see many more birthdays. May he be privileged to see them is the wish of the writer. M. D. L. Cocanougher.

HOODE-MINOR

Mr. C. D. Minor and Mrs. Lena Hoode Are United in Marriage at Perryville.

Perryville, Ky., Jan. 24.—Mr. Claude Dryden Minor, until recently assistant cashier of the Bank of Perryville, but now chief book keeper in the Peoples Bank, of Springfield, was united in marriage to Mrs. Lena Hoode yesterday afternoon, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Robertson, in this city. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in the West End of the County. The ceremony was performed by E. F. Holmes, in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends. After the wedding a sumptuous supper was served to the bridal party. The young couple will make their future home at Springfield.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by the various forms of life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But the most dangerous are the germs, the Bacteria, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's what Chamberlain's Cough and Colic Remedy does. NAMES OF MANY ASPIRANTS

Who Will Seek The Nomination
For Various Offices

May 27.

A number of candidates for the Democratic nomination for State office have already announced, while others will probably enter the field in the near future.

The candidates for Governor who have announced are: Ben Johnson, of Nelson county, J. B. McCreary, of Madison county, John K. Hendrick, of McCracken county, William Adams, of Harrison county, and Mayor W. O. Head, of Louisville. It is probable, however, that the race will narrow down to Johnson and McCreary.

Mr. James P. Edwards, of Louisville, is the only announced candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

There are three announced candidates for Attorney General, James Garnett, of Adair county, O. H. Pollard, of Breathitt county, and M. M. Logan, while Ward, of Caldwell county, may enter the race in the near future.

The only aspirant for Secretary of State is Dr. C. F. Creech, of Falmouth. However, James E. Stone, of Greenbridge county, and G. S. Likens, of Ohio county, have signified their intentions to make the race and may announce shortly.

There are three aspirants in the field for State Auditor, Henry S. Bowdoin, of Harrison county, Ruby Laffoon, of Hopkins county, and Frank Hager, of Johnson county.

The candidates for Commissioner of Agriculture are: J. W. Newman, of Woodford county, and Judge Ben F. Hill, of Henry county.

L. T. Litterell, of Owen county, Miss Nannie Catlett, of Caldwell county, R. E. Eubank, of Fayette county, and Barkdale Hamlett, of Christian county, are candidates for Sur. enroute of Public Instruction.

Joseph Clay VanMeter, of Fayette county, is the sole aspirant for the nomination of State Treasurer.

No announcements have been made for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. However, Woodson May, of Somerset, and J. Morgan Chinn, of Frankfort, are prospective candidates.

When the Executive Committee meets January 25, the date of closing the entries will be named and the fees of entrance of the candidates for the various offices determined upon. The entrance fee is checking the announcements of many aspirants, who will probably enter the race when the amount of the entrance fee is made known.

The primary will be held May 27, 1911.

Magistrate Appointed.

Gov. Wilson has appointed Wm. Henry Lav, who lives near Cardwell, as Magistrate in the Mackville-Hendrix district. Mr. Lav is appointed to succeed Squire Thos. Votaw, who has resigned. Mr. Lav is a native of good people who knew Mr. Votaw and greeted that the county should lose him, but it is a matter of congratulation that the Governor has appointed a man of Mr. Lav's character and ability as his successor. Mr. Lav is a Republican as was Mr. Votaw.
